

Metro Toronto Movement for Literacy

MTML, an independent, non-profit organization, was formed in 1978 by concerned groups and individuals to support and promote adult literacy in the region. As the regional network, we link approximately 200 individual and organizational members from across the City of Toronto and York Region.

In addition to the MTML Tutor Training, MTML provides a variety of services which include the following:

- ★ Operate the Literacy Access Network, an information and referral service to help people find literacy and upgrading programs in their neighbourhoods.
- ★ Raise public awareness and promote action in adult literacy
- ★ Provide professional development for members
- ★ Enhance communication and collaboration among adult literacy providers
- ★ Facilitate community planning and coordination of adult literacy resources
- ★ Coordinate and conduct research and development in adult literacy

Phone: (416) 961-4013; Email: admin@mtml.ca; www.mtml.ca

Access to the written world

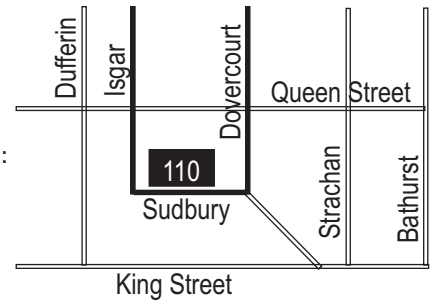

Famous PEOPLE Players

30 years of Rehearsal...

Now wait until you see the performance

Celebrating their 30th anniversary this 2004, Famous PEOPLE Players is an internationally acclaimed black light theatre company founded in 1974 by Diane Dupuy, recipient of the Order of Canada. When Liberace invited them to join his act in 1975 he did not know the performers were developmentally challenged, he just knew they were brilliant performers. Some other highlights include:

- ★ In 1980 chosen to officially reopen New York's Radio City Music Hall
- ★ Portrayed in CBS movie of the week Special People
- ★ One hour feature on the Phil Donahue Show
- ★ In 1982 they were the first western group to be invited to perform in the People's Republic of China
- ★ In 1986 they opened on Broadway
- ★ After years of touring they settled in Toronto on February 18th, 1994 with the help of actor Paul Newman who underwrote the restaurant and musician Phil Collins who funded the theatre.

 Famous PEOPLE Players
110 Sudbury Street
Telephone: 416 532 1137